

High West American Prairie Barrel Aged Bourbon Whiskey is a complex blend of straight bourbons, producing an aromatic whiskey that is rich and earthy on the palate.

This American bourbon showcases well-balanced flavors of candy corn, honey nougat and sweet corn bread biscuits, with a finish of vanilla and caramel apple. A blend of straight bourbons aged from 2 to 13 years in charred white oak barrels, this High West whiskey is a great sipper and a thoughtful person's whiskey. Its balanced body is also ideal for mixing a Manhattan or countless other whiskey cocktails.

This bottle of whiskey helps preserve the West - for each one sold, High West donates a portion of its after-tax profits to the American Prairie Reserve. Choose High West and enjoy delicious craft whiskey made with the pioneering spirit of the West.

High West Double Rye! Barrel Aged Rye Whiskey combines a young, spicy 2-year-old rye whiskey with a smooth, older counterpart.

The resulting blended whiskey features a spirited flavor with rye spices up front, then menthol, mint, eucalyptus and herbal tea with wildflower honey underneath, gradually sweetening through the finish with a hint of anise.

This fine 92-proof American whiskey blends straight ryes that undergo oak barrel aging for two to seven years in new, charred white oak barrels. The spicy flavor of this 750 mL bottle of whiskey fortifies classics like an Old Fashioned or Manhattan cocktail. With a perfect balance of cinnamon, anise, and honey whiskey flavors, High West Double Rye! is also great served neat - with a little water - or on the rocks. Try this whiskey straight up in the solitude of a campfire, savor it with favorite old friends or share it with a good-looking stranger.

High West Rendezvous Rye Whiskey is made with a blend of straight rye which is aged four to seven years in charred American white oak barrels.

That process gives this blended whiskey a high rye content and uncompromising flavor. A very spicy flavor with notes of cinnamon, vanilla, caramel, molasses and candied fruit pair with a balanced body that makes this spirit perfect for whiskey cocktails. Each sip delivers a lingering finish laced with fragrant spices and vanilla.

Enjoy this American whiskey straight up. The high rye mash bill also makes this cinnamon whiskey a crucial ingredient in a classic Manhattan cocktail.

High West Campfire Barrel Aged Whiskey is made from a top secret blend of bourbon, rye and peated scotch whiskey ranging in age from four to eight years.

The floral, fruity spice of a mature rye whiskey enhances flavors of honey from a sweet bourbon, while hints of vanilla, toffee, cinnamon and nutmeg dance on the tongue. Scotch whiskey adds the smoke, giving this blended whiskey a long sweet, spicy and smoky finish. This 750 mL bottle of whiskey is aged in white oak barrels, along with second use bourbon barrels.

Bring it out with old friends or good-looking strangers, enjoying this High West whiskey straight up, with a little water or in classic whiskey cocktails for a unique twist